① ✓ ANTANAS LUDVIKAS IMPULEVICIUS

The "Morning Freiheit" on January 13, 1963, published an item on page 15, entitled "Sworn Evidence on a Nazi Killer Still at Large in Philadelphia USA," by CHAIM SULZER. A summary of this article is as follows:

The writer begins by recalling the trial held in the spring of last year when the Supreme Court of Vilna convicted ten mass murderers of Jews, partisans, and Red Army prisoners, among them, in absentia, the captioned subject. The article then cites excerpts from the court proceedings and quotes testimony of the subject's co-criminals and other witnesses. The alleged testimony points out the subject's direct responsibility for murders occurring in various cities in Lithuania. One witness related that he saw the subject personally participate in mass murders and another witness quoted the subject as saying, "They (Jews) have to be exterminated like bedbugs; not one should remain alive."

The writer noted that the prosecutor at this trial pointed out the subject now resides in Philadelphia and the subject's adjutant, YUJIS JUORIS, resides elsewhere in the United States. The prosecutor expressed hope and confidence that "good Americans" would use their influence to convince the U.S. Government that the subject and JUORIS should be extradited to Lithuania to receive "deserved punishment as war criminals." The article noted that the U.S. Government thus far has rejected all Soviet attempts to extradite the subject and JUORIS.
